Anthony L. Jenkins, Ph.D.

Dear Students, Faculty and Staff:

For far too long across our nation and state, we have witnessed the profound destruction caused by racism and intolerance. Because I believe we all have a responsibility to make our society better, I proudly support the "Many Stories, One Future - YWCA Campaign to End Racism." Thanks to your generous support of my fundraising efforts, I am pleased to announce that I have exceeded my goal of raising $1,000 and am now ready to go "Over the Edge" with my fellow campaign supporters.

The "Over the Edge" event is an urban rappelling experience in downtown Charleston that will feature 100 adventure seekers, like myself, rappelling 211 feet down the side of the BB&T building. My participation in this high-profile event is yet another effort to keep fighting for our nation and state not as they are, but rather the way they should be: more just.

I invite you to join me on Friday, June 20, at 3:30 p.m. at 300 Summers Street for a press conference and to watch me go "Over the Edge" at 5:00 p.m.

Best Regards,

Anthony L. Jenkins, Ph.D.
