

WEST VIRGINIA STATE UNIVERSITY

SPRING 2010 NEW STUDENT ADVISING AND REGISTRATION

An academic orientation, advising, and registration sessions for fully admitted new WVSU students will be conducted by the University's colleges on Thursday, November 19. The session will begin promptly at 5:00 p.m. in the P. Ahmed Williams Auditorium on the second floor of Ferrell Hall Administration Building. Following comments from the Vice President for Academic Affairs, Dr. R. Charles Byers, students will proceed to the campus locations of the colleges of their majors for academic orientation, advising, and class registration. These activities should conclude around 8:00 p.m. Students attending should be prepared to be present for the entire session from 5:00 until activities are completed.

New students must have applied and been fully admitted to WVSU in order to be advised and registered at this time. Questions about the status of a student's application to WVSU should be directed to the Office of Admissions in 106 Ferrell Hall or at 304-766-3033 prior to attending the session on November 19. Each student attending should bring his or her official letter of admission to WVSU, which includes the student's WVSU ID number (or "A number"—it will start with A000 or A001).

New WVSU first-time and transfer students who are unable to attend the session on November 19 must attend the final academic orientation, advising, and class registration session on Thursday, January 14, 2010. This final new student session will begin promptly at 9:00 a.m. in the P. Ahmed Williams Auditorium on the second floor of Ferrell Hall Administration Building. Following introductory comments from the Vice President for Academic Affairs, Dr. R. Charles Byers, students will proceed to the campus locations of the colleges of their majors for academic orientation, advising, and class registration. These activities should conclude at around noon. Students should be prepared to be present for the entire session from 9:00 until activities are completed.
