WVSU Department of Education
Teacher Candidate Dress Code Policy

The mission of the Education Department at West Virginia State University (WVSU) is “To prepare teachers as Human Developers who love to teach.” To achieve this mission, the Education Department has adopted three professional dispositions: (1) Student Focused, (2) Role Model, and (3) Member of a Profession. The Teacher Education Candidate Dress Code is designed to assist all teacher education candidates to meet WVSU Professional Dispositions- (2) Role Model and (3) Member of a Profession. This policy was developed in accordance with Guidelines established by the West Virginia Board of Education and the National Council for the Accreditation of Teacher Education. In addition, the public schools, where WVSU teacher education candidates are placed, provided additional input.

The West Virginia State University (WVSU) Department of Education Faculty expects all teacher candidates representing the program in any field or clinical placement and professional arena to be a role model for public school students by projecting a positive disposition and conducting themselves with a high level of professional decorum. One part of this professionalism includes dressing appropriately at all times to reflect positively on the candidate, West Virginia State University, the WVSU Education Department, and the education profession.

Personal appearance has direct bearing on the authority, confidence, and self-esteem of teacher candidates and inappropriate dress may create distractions to instruction and student learning. All candidates are expected to adhere to this dress code policy and project common practices of modesty, cleanliness, and neatness in the academic learning environment. The candidate who fails to comply with this dress code may be removed from any professional experience and be subject to disciplinary actions.

WVSU teacher candidates have traditionally upheld high standards of professionalism, including that of appropriate, professional attire. In accordance with that tradition, the WVSU Department of Education is adopting this policy to support its candidates’ tradition of excellence. The following standards of dress and provisions of this policy are applicable to all WVSU Teacher Education candidates:

Skirts, Dresses, and Skirted Suits

For female candidates, dresses and skirts should be of an appropriate length. Dresses and skirts, and skirts that are split at or below the knee are acceptable. Mini-skirts, skorts, beach dresses, and spaghetti-strap or strapless dresses (worn without a sweater or jacket) are inappropriate.

At times, candidates may be exempt from some of parts of the dress code during special activities such as field trips and other similar events. However, candidates must always adhere to standards of good taste. Specific appropriate attire may be worn on spirit days or school dress up days as announced or designated by the principal.

Disclaimer:
While this list is seemingly inclusive, with any situations that are not addressed in this policy, candidates are to use their professional judgment and adhere to the spirit of this policy. During field/clinical experiences and professional experiences, if questions arise about the dress code policy then candidates are encouraged to discuss these questions with their university supervisor or professor.

NOTE: Any teacher education candidate in violation of any part of this policy could be excused from their field/clinical experience and/or subject to consequences described in the WVSU Department of Education Teacher Handbook including DISAPPROVAL.
