

WEST VIRGINIA STATE UNIVERSITY

Instructor of Mathematics College of Natural Sciences and Mathematics

West Virginia State University

Founded in 1891, West Virginia State University (WVSU) is a public-land grant institution, which was originally founded as a historically black university, but which has evolved into a fully accessible, racially integrated and multi-generational institution serving approximately 3,500 students. The University is a community of students, staff, and faculty committed to academic growth, service and preservation of the racial and cultural diversity of the institution. WVSU offers 23 undergraduate and seven graduate degrees through its four colleges. WVSU competes in athletics at the NCAA Division II level in five men's sports and five women's sports. WVSU is located in Institute, WV, a suburb of Charleston, the largest city and the capital of West Virginia. With more than 300,000 people living in the metropolitan area, it is an active, exciting and engaging community, boasting cultural and historical events, music, festivals and entertainment.

Position Description

The Department of Mathematics, Engineering, and Computer Science at West Virginia State University invites applications for a full-time (non-tenure-track) Instructor of Mathematics position starting Fall 2024. This position is renewable annually, depending on teaching performance and institutional need. We are seeking candidates who have a passion for teaching and student success. The Department offers Bachelor of Science degrees in Mathematics, Engineering, and Computer Science and a Master of Science in Computer Science.

Responsibilities for the Position

Responsibilities include teaching elementary mathematics and mathematics education courses and participation in department and university committees. The normal teaching load is 15 credit hours per semester.

Requirements for the Position

A Master's degree in Mathematics or a related field from an accredited institution is required. The successful candidate is expected to have teaching experience at the secondary or post-secondary levels. Though not required, the ability to teach elementary physics classes is a plus. The successful candidate will need to complete a background check.

Salary Statement

Salary will be commensurate with qualifications and experience.

To Apply

This position will remain open until filled. However, priority consideration will be given to applicants who submit a complete application package, including a resume, cover letter, unofficial copies of academic transcripts (official copies required upon acceptance of the job offer), and contact information (names, email addresses, or phone numbers) for three professional references by April 1, 2024. Please ensure that all requested information is submitted to have your application considered.

For additional information regarding this position, please contact the department chair, Dr. Xiaohong Zhang (zhangxi@wvstateu.edu).
