Anthony L. Jenkins, Ph.D.

Dear Yellow Jacket Nation:

On this Memorial Day weekend, I ask that we pause and honor the heroes and brave military men and women who have made the ultimate sacrifice for our country. Throughout the incredible history of our university, men and women from West Virginia State have served our nation and its citizens at a level that very few other colleges or universities can match. The contributions and sacrifices that Yellow Jackets have made to defend our freedoms should make all of us proud.

Their patriotism, commitment and valor deserve our utmost respect and tremendous gratitude. This holiday serves as a reminder of the more than one million men and women who made the ultimate sacrifice in defense of their country and her freedoms.

I invite you to enjoy this time with your friends and family, and to take time to remember and honor these great heroes.

Best regards,

Anthony L. Jenkins, Ph.D.
President
