

West Virginia State University's Registered Nurse Educational Requirements Alignment with Other States Initial RN Licensure

The U.S. Department of Education has implemented regulations (Regulation 34 CFR 668.43 (a) (5) (v)) which requires West Virginia State University's Bachelor Degree in Nursing Program to provide a list of all states/jurisdictions where the institution's curriculum meets state educational requirements for professional licensure or certification.

Please go to the National Council of States Boards of Nursing (NCSBN) website to look up each state's initial licensure educational requirements: <https://www.ncsbn.org/14730.htm>

1. This information is only for initial licensure by exam requirements for the state listed.
2. Students should contact the Board of Nursing in the state they would like to be initially licensed in for more specific information.
3. This information DOES NOT apply to transferring West Virginia RN Licensure to another state.
4. Students in other countries should note that it is the student's responsibility to determine whether or not completion of their program of choice at West Virginia State University will fulfill any educational requirements for professional licensure in their country. Students should also note that additional requirements for licensure, other than education, may apply. Students should contact the appropriate licensing agency/board within their country for information to assist in making such a determination.
