SGA APPLICANT AGREEMENT
CODE OF ETHICAL STANDARDS

As a candidate to a position within the Student Government Association, I understand that the purpose of my position is to be knowledgeable of the rules and regulations involving the policies and procedures, which govern the students of West Virginia State University. I have the responsibility to remain fully informed of all Institutional practices and procedures, so that I may both effectively and efficiently keep my fellow students informed.

I further understand that Institutional regulations, policies and procedures require that all student leaders conduct themselves in an atmosphere of seriousness, with an emphasis placed on procedures and to maintain dignity and decorum.

In addition to the stated policies, with regards to student conduct, I also understand that with my position; also come various other standards that I must adhere to in regards to ethics:

1. Confidential student matters are not to be discussed, shown or shared.
2. There should be no discussion of SGA Office business outside of executive office staff meetings or senate meetings, whichever applies.
3. Executive staff members should strive to gain inclusion from all students in regards to policymaking, participation in activities, events and meetings.
4. Executive staff officers should always be conscious of their status as a representative of the university governing system. Members should avoid involvement in situations, which may tend to lessen their perceived credibility or objectivity in carrying out the rules and regulations of the institution.
5. No campaign materials shall be used that will damage or permanently mark any property of the University nor interfere with the normal operations of either institution.
6. Every individual campaign committee and organization engaged in campaigning of any kind shall see that the Office of Student Activities APPROVES all materials before distribution. All campaign materials shall then be REMOVED immediately following the election.
7. Please respect the other candidates or you lose respect for yourself. Being disrespectful towards another student and his or her campaign may result in disqualification as it is considered a violation of student conduct as outlined in The Buzz, the student handbook.

I understand that I must remain in good standing with all areas of West Virginia State University in order to maintain my position within the Student Government Association.

I understand that this oath is a continuing affirmation and will remain effective for any information learned during my association with the Student Government Association.

Any violation of the above-mentioned standards may result in my suspension and/or removal from office.
